

Cadets: The 9th Age

Its that time again! Time to throw down, roll some dice, and have a grand old time. Joining this event is great for several reasons...

- 1.) Most importantly - this is a fundraising event for the Cadets, come in and give to a great cause!
- 2.) Support the practice of the first all Canadian International ETC 9th Age team! Kick our butts to make sure we are ready for the international championships!
- 3.) Get some awesome fun games in!
- 4.) Fun prizes to go around+raffles! The only physical prizes will be for achieving objectives.

Raffle Prizes

Army Composition

-4500 points

-Lists due on day of event (just bring a copy for your opponents)

-Any force available from the downloads section of the 9th Age site. This includes books/rules released before the event (should such madness occur)

What to Bring

-Copy of your rules

-Basic gaming supplies

-Why do I need to list this, you all know these things

-Probably Candy?

Secret Objectives

-You will be provided with special objectives to achieve during the event. The 1% who achieve these objectives will win a very mediocre prize! And probably candy? Consider yourself enticed!

Also... you will obviously win renown and majesty for yourself.
